What YOU should be doing:

- Review of previous performance: re-write past past efforts, identify gaps in knowledge, attending ALL lessons, attending revision opportunities, accessing online content, comparing exemplars to your efforts...and then attempting again 😊
- Exam Structure: know what each paper has on it, know what each question is worth, know your timings, know the AO's...KNOW THEM.

On the shared area...

Active Reviewing of Practice Exam Papers in the classroom

High quality engagement of students in reviewing their practice examination and assessments through activities that reinforce both the concepts and exam strategy.

Examples may include:

- Peer assessment that leads to suggestions for improvement
- Group discussion and answering of a key questions
- Redoing questions after some guidance
- Redoing exam in exam conditions
- Students comparing exam papers with some 'teaching others'
